TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENROLLMENT

The following terms and conditions of enrollment apply to all students of IPMI International Business School.

1. ADMISSION POLICY

Admission to IPMI International Business School is open to all individuals. IPMI International Business School's admission office does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, age, physical disability, political affiliation or sexual orientation.

Selection for admission is based on an overall assessment of the individual's potential. IPMI International Business School reserves the right to reject an application and to review a student's progress periodically.

2. FEES AND CHARGES

All fees have to be paid according to the tuition payment agreement and following school payment schedule. Payment is not official until IPMI's receipt is issued. Any payment made after the due dates schedule will be charged a 10% p.a of the amount owing.

There will be additional tuition fees and other fees if the student has to retake courses or extend the study period. The tuition fee excludes book fees and graduation fees. All fees are strictly non-refundable and non-transferable.

3. CURRICULUM REVIEW

IPMI International Business School reserves the right to periodically review and make changes to the curriculum without prior notice.

4. EXAMINATIONS AND EVALUATIONS

IPMI International Business School students will be required to successfully complete course works, examinations, projects and other evaluations. Conditions apply to the eligibility for examinations. Examinations are administered at scheduled times and students must avail themselves for the examinations. IPMI International Business School may annul a student's graduation record and degree conferred even when the student has completed his/her studies.
